Honorable Peter W. Rodino, Jr.
Chairman
Committee on the Judiciary
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

One of the interesting features of employment with a large governmental organization is that matters occasionally come bubbling to the surface from the depths of the bureaucracy.

An example of this phenomenon is the enclosed report which relates back to the activities of the Select Committee on Assassinations. While this is long overdue and may no longer be of interest, I am forwarding it to you for your information and appropriate disposition.

Sincerely,

Thomas M. Boyd
Acting Assistant Attorney General
